

Men's walking weekends. A varied programme of outings is on offer for FBC men and their friends. Please contact the leader(s) of the outing(s) you would like to come on.

If you'd like to add an extra day onto any of these weekends, please mention that to the leader, and it could happen.

Each member of each outing will be expected to accept responsibility for his own safety. As ever, there will be funds available to help those who are strapped for cash; just ask.

Nov 26/27 To the Cotswolds, leader Keith Stone (01252 794169 keith.stone239@btinternet.com).

Gentler walking. Probably staying in a hotel or pub. Costs will be kept moderate, but this is not intended as a cheapest-possible outing.

Jan 14/15 To the Lake District, leaders Con Jooste (01252 795848 conrad@jooste.net) and Mike Causey (01252 891519 Mike@smithandcausey.co.uk).

Options including high peaks. Staying in a Youth Hostel, [click <http://www.yha.org.uk/find-accommodation/the-lake-district/hostels/Ambleside/index.aspx>] so lower cost.

This outing is likely to be very popular, as last year, so please contact the leaders soon. Although the outing will be led by experienced fell walkers, each member will accept responsibility for his own safety.

Feb 18/19 To Snowdonia, leader David Churchill (01252 715527 david@churchill21.plus.com).

Options including high peaks. Staying in a hotel [click <http://www.tygwynhotel.co.uk/>] (also B&B option if you prefer to keep your price down). Very fine restaurant meals in the evening, so you largely can control your own costs by your decisions on accomm and meals. Reckon on £60 to £100 per night incl travel as an estimate. This outing will be restricted to ten members, so please contact the leader soon.

Mar 24/25 To the upper Thames valley, leader David Churchill (01252 715527 david@churchill21.plus.com).

Gentler walking. Not so far to drive. Probably staying in a hotel or pub. Costs will be kept moderate, but this is not intended as a cheapest-possible outing.

This outing will be restricted to ten members, so please contact the leader soon.

Although the outing will be led by experienced fell walkers, each member will accept responsibility for his own safety.
